As part of the review each Subject Lecturer completes a report and then the Personal Tutor summaries these in the Personal Tutor Summary. Targets are then set for each learner.

You have started the course late, but have demonstrated excellent motivation to catch up. You have not complained and have given some difficult work your best effeort well done! You have settled in to the group well and everyone seems to enjoy your company. Lets just work on your punctuality and then I am sure you will pass successfully and become a skilled tradesman. Well done and keep up the good work!!!!smile Matt Wylds.
