The Learner Review Procedure

Each learner will have met with their Personal Tutor for a 1 to 1 review to discuss the progress they are making at college and any specific support they may require to help them achieve their targets and qualification.

As part of the review each Subject Lecturer completes a report and then the Personal Tutor summaries these in the Personal Tutor Summary. Targets are then set for each learner.

The unit which is being taught this term is unit 9 Outdoor Adventurous Expeditions which is part of their BTEC National Public Service qualification. They have been looking at the different types of maps which are available to use and the way we use these maps. They have also looked at map symbols, how to use compasses and navigational skills such as orienteering a map and using grid references.

Jermaine is an excellent student with high levels of attendance and punctuality which is fantastic to see, well done! Jermaine is a confident student who is happy to speak and express his views in front of the class. Jermaine has shown good levels of understanding and knowledge in the subject area which is pleasing to see. His target is to continue the excellent start to the year and research outside of class to help him achieve the highest grade possible.

Jermaine has improved recently. He is now a good student he is keen to learn. He must ensure he expresses his views more in class and become more confident in speaking in front of the group. He has shown good signs of understanding and knowledge and is confident in himself regarding the subject area.

Review Term: Autumn/

Review:

Jermaine's attendance and punctuality levels are outstanding; he always arrives on time to lessons well prepared. He has worked well in class and continues to show good enthusiasm in the subject area. He is a very keen learner and has made good progress throughout lessons. In addition to this, he is learning to understand the skills, training and resources required for participation. He has enjoyed participating in group activities, and working independently.

Issues Raised: None.

Kenneth King.

Review Term: Spring/

Review:

Jermaine is a good student. But he is still underachieving due to lack of focus. His attendance record is excellent; which is highly commendable. It is hoped that these high standards can be maintained throughout the year. His punctuality is also of a very high level. Again, this is to be commended.

Issues Raised: Jermaine is now passing his courses - but if he applies himself he could achieve much more.

Kenneth King.

Review Term: Spring

Review: As the tutor - I am very pleased with Jermaine's overall progress within the college. Attendance and punctuality levels are very good. All of the subject lecturers' are happy with his general attitude, classwork, and effort. All point to good work and completion of the Extended Diploma.

Issues Raised: In terms of work - if Jermaine made more effort he could progress from a 'pass' to a 'merit' grade student.

Kenneth King.
