The Learner Review Procedure

Each learner will have met with their Personal Tutor for a 1 to 1 review to discuss the progress they are making at college and any specific support they may require to help them achieve their targets and qualification.

As part of the review each Subject Lecturer completes a report and then the Personal Tutor summaries these in the Personal Tutor Summary. Targets are then set for each learner.

Comments: last year. He is an able student, but lacks confidence in his ability. He is also hampered because he needs to be more organised in terms of providing the essential art materials necessary for the course he is on.

Smart Targets: Write up on going evaluation

Ramone has struggled this term and tends to get distracted when working. He needs to work at a quicker pase as he is in danger of falling behind. The work produced is ok but he needs to learn to experiment more with his materials.

Ramone has potential and a more disciplined approach to the work would be to his benefit.

Complete evaluations for each task

Smart Targets:

Comments:

Spend two hours a week on homework for unit 2

Ramone you really need to appreciate the importance of the grading criteria. You cannot pass the unit without the evaluation no matter how good your practical work. Use help and practice. Write them in pencil and check them with me. You need to complete the evaluation immediately after the task. Your techniques are good and you need to spend more time exploring different media, research techniques on the internet to see how other artists have used them.

Review Term: Autumn/Spring/Summer

Review: Ramone I am a little disappointed after reading your subject reviews, this is all about application or lack of it. I need to work out why you are selling yourself short of you potential. You are confident, articulate a natural teacher and yet you do not appreciate the opportunity you have here to achieve an excellent qualification. You need to think about how you organise your time both in college and out and prioritize what is important to you, otherwise this is going to be a struggle for all of us.
