The Learner Review Procedure

Each learner will have met with their Personal Tutor for a 1 to 1 review to discuss the progress they are making at college and any specific support they may require to help them achieve their targets and qualification.

As part of the review each Subject Lecturer completes a report and then the Personal Tutor summaries these in the Personal Tutor Summary. Targets are then set for each learner.

I am pleased with Hasan's contribution in class. He does occasionally get distracted but he generally works hard which is very pleasing. I think he has a lot to offer and works well with others, however can be a distraction for others also.

I would like Hassan to hand in his next assignments for me on time and for Smart Targets:

him to have attempted the Merit standard in them. He also needs to attend 100% of lessons from now until half term.

I am very pleased with Hassan's performance in my classes. He is quite quiet in the class but takes part where necessary and hands in work of good quality. I hope he can push himself to achieve highly on his modules as he is clearly very capable of achieving at least a Merit in all his assignments, provided he works hard both in and out of class. I understand that Hassan has a medical problem which prevents him from having a higher attendance, however, I feel that he does his best to come in and I would like him to aim to achieve 90% attendance by Feb half term.

Review Term: Autumn

Review: 1st review

Issues Raised: Some attendance issues which are getting better

Hassan is a bright young man who challenges the system and asks good thoughtful questions. He seems to be able to cope with the work involved with some ease. Clearly able, Hassan does need to understand the issues of regular attendance. In the world of work, sickness and absence are often seen as the same. He has a future in the UPS providing he sees other sides to peoples arguments.

Jo Edmonds.

Review Term: Spring

Review: As I said in my progress report Hassan is a bright young man who I think should try to get into the UPS. He seems capable enough and has ability but is not stretching himself enough regarding his work. He can achieve merits but has not yet achieved one in my classes.

Issues Raised: None
