As part of the review each Subject Lecturer completes a report and then the Personal Tutor summaries these in the Personal Tutor Summary. Targets are then set for each learner.

Comments:

Craig has a good understanding of most mathematical concepts and has completed all tasks so far. He is confident at answering one-step closed questions however needs additional practice at interpreting open-ended contextualized questions as well as using appropriate mathematical operations sequentially to reach sensible solutions. He has excellent attendance and punctuality. Very well done, keep it up!!!

Amanda Smith.
