The Learner Review Procedure

As part of the review each Subject Lecturer completes a report and then the Personal Tutor summaries these in the Personal Tutor Summary. Targets are then set for each learner.

Smart Targets:	ATTENDANCE: Your attendance rate is very alarming. You have missed many English classes and you need to catch up before it's too late. PERFORMANCE: Your speaking and listening are at an established level but you have not passed the FS Final exam because you have been absent too many times and are still away from the course. Thereis still room for improvement in the reading and writing components. You must work more on language features of texts in the reading part and focus more on subject verb agreement in the writing part. ACTION PLAN: 1) You will choose 3 articles from a local newspaper and analyse the language features of each article and submit the completed tasks to your teacher by the end of this March. 2) You will borrow grammar book Raymond Murphy advanced level from the library and tackle 2 tasks related to subject verb agreement , which you will submit for marking by end of March
